

Two best practices of the department of Hindi

Hindi Divas

Objectives:

The Department of Hindi celebrates Hindi Divas on 14th September every year. The objective of celebrating Hindi Divas is to spread awareness about the language. Its aim is to promote and propagate the official language while serving as a patriotic reminder of India's shared roots and unity among its diverse population. The motive behind celebrating Hindi Divas is to honour and recognise the contribution of the Hindi language to India's cultural and linguistic diversity.

Publication of Departmental Journal *Vitasta

Objectives:

The Department of Hindi publishes a peer reviewed Journal titled Vitasta every year. Its aim is to provide a platform to the students and scholars of the department to express their ideas, and to encourage them towards Hindi language & literature in Non-Hindi speaking area. National & International writers contribute their research papers for this journal. The Journal not only publishes research works but also encourages the young writers by publishing their writings of different genre of Hindi language & Literature.
